SYNDICATED EQUITIES TO SPONSOR FEA 28TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Chicago, Illinois September 5, 2017 – Syndicated Equities is pleased to announce it is a Silver sponsor of the Federation of Exchange Accommodators (FEA) 28th Annual Conference in San Diego, California to be held September 13 – 15, 2017. The conference theme, “To Serve, Preserve and Advance 1031,” will feature 23 expert speakers and welcome more than 200 exchange professionals. Conference presentations include an economic update and multiple sessions on the potential impact of tax reform legislation aimed at helping experienced and new QIs alike.

Syndicated Equities is proud to be an involved affiliate member of the FEA and a sponsor of the last three Annual Conferences. Syndicated Equities will be represented by Tracy Treger and Miranda Parker who will have the opportunity to meet with attendees and provide an overview of the services we provide and how we can add value to the QI’s business operation.

“The FEA appreciates our sponsors who help make our Annual Conference possible while giving our members the opportunity to learn about products and services that can help them grow their business, create improved efficiencies and better serve their clients. We appreciate the support of our sponsors and affiliates of the FEA, our members and the 1031 exchange industry,” said Eric Brecher, CES®, Director and Co-Chair of the FEA Annual Conference Planning Committee.

The Federation of Exchange Accommodators (FEA) is the only national trade organization formed to represent qualified intermediaries (QIs), their primary legal/tax advisers and other professionals directly involved in IRC Section 1031 Like-Kind Exchanges. FEA’s mission is providing leadership, setting standards and educating consumers. There are nearly 550 individuals who represent the member companies of FEA.

Syndicated Equities has assisted clients in sourcing and identifying replacement properties that allow for the deferral of capital gains. By offering investors the opportunity to acquire a whole or fractional interest in income producing properties, Syndicated has formatted investments that provide consistent cash flow from net leased, investment grade tenants. Our qualified team has a seasoned variety of experiences in all aspects of 1031 exchanges, credit tenant acquisitions, financing and asset management.
